ABOUT ME

My name is Juan Sebastian Cantor, I'm 19 years old, I been programming since I was 14 years old, I have Solid knowledge in front end technologies, React Js, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, GIT and GITHUB, responsive page layout and bootstrap management.

EDUCATION

Academlo

I am currently studying in this prestigious programming academy to learn about full stack programming, at this moment I have taken the decision to find a job as a front-end programmer because designing beautiful and functional platforms is something that I love.

Platzi / Udemy

Before my 18th birthday I found these platforms which taught me the basics of what I would learn today by learning HTML and CSS, including learning how to make static pages.

Youtube

empirically I learned to design applications, to learn frameworks that would help me in the task of programming web pages.
